

Stand up to Racism

Chesterfield Quakers joined in with the action on 20th March 2021 to highlight The United Nations Anti-Racism Day. We stood outside the Quaker Meeting House with our banners clearly visible to passing traffic and pedestrians . Most of the time we had positive responses but of course there are always some who appear angry but we are left unsure why. We were in a good position to be seen!

